PRINCE BANDROOM

ST KILDA

500 TO 1000 CAPACITY MODES

Starting off as a base for General McCarthur in World War 2, the 50s and 60s saw artists like Sidney Nolan flocking (and even living in the front bar) before the 70s punk renaissance had icons like AC/DC, The Birthday Party with Nick Cave here to perform and just hang out. The legendary line-up continued through the 80s and 90s, with Midnight Oil and Paul Kelly, You Am I and Silverchair, Lenny Kravitz and Prince all getting up to no good on our stage. And today? Everyone from Billie Eilish, Dom Dolla and Doja Cat through to G-Flip and Glass Animals are on The Prince's books. Understated but never underestimated, once you've experienced live music at The Prince, you'll keep coming back for more.
